MISS ROSINA MORDECAI
1803 HANOVER AVENUE
RICHMOND, VA.

July 19, 1927.

Dear Mr. Collier:—

Your letter enclosing the fee was received, and I am sorry I was unavoidably delayed in making the search.

Am enclosing a certified copy of the proof of Colonial service of Vines Collier. This is all that appears for him from references in Colonial and Revolutionary lists.

I also examined a book in the State Library on the expedition to Fort Duquesne, but the name Collier does not appear in the index. I found the name with reference in Eckenrode's list of "Colonial Soldiers of Virginia". Yours very truly,

Rosina Mordecai